The Postgraduate Bursary

UEL give postgraduate students up to £120 over the course of their studies. This can be spent on a range of study related items to help support you during your time at UEL.

Who is eligible?

You could be eligible for an award if you meet the following criteria.

You are:

- A new postgraduate student, starting in September 2014 or,
- A continuing part-time student registering for new modules (after September 2012)
- Studying full or part time
- A Home, EU, or International student

*For a full list of criteria and exceptions visit www.uel.ac.uk/pgfunding

When will you receive your Postgraduate Bursary?

If you're eligible, you will receive £20 for every 30-credit module you enrol for. Students taking a 60-credit module will receive a £40 bursary.
